

It's All In The Name

Introduction

Jerry's teaching from two weeks ago reminded me of a teaching I had recently seen.

Introduction

Several years ago I presented a teaching which showed how Old Testament thought and statements are replicated in the New Testament and vice-versa.

We'll see later in this teaching the effect of this fact.

Introduction

I do not speak or read Hebrew.
Translations are based on multiple references found on the Internet

Introduction

Can we agree that each letter in the Hebrew alphabet has multiple meanings?

The Alphabet

The English Alphabet

The letter “A” has no additional meaning.

It only signifies a hard sound Aaa or a soft sound ahh

The Alphabet

The Hebrew Alphabet

Aleph (א)

Is a picture of an ox head representing strength and power from the work performed by the animal.

The Alphabet

This pictograph also represents a chief or other leader. When two oxen are yoked together for pulling a wagon or plow, one is the older and more experienced one who leads the other. Within the clan, tribe or family the chief or father is seen as the elder who is yoked to the others as the leader and teacher.

The Alphabet

Aleph can also mean oxen, yoke,
learn, or the number one.

Aleph also indicates the Oneness and Unity of the Creator.

Words

Can we also agree that Hebrew words have additional meanings to the one in the word's context?

Words

Shalom

שלום

Shalom is also spelled as sholom, sholem, sholoim, shulem).

It is a Hebrew word meaning peace, harmony, wholeness, completeness, prosperity, welfare and tranquility and can be used idiomatically to mean both hello and goodbye.

Words

As it does in Hebrew, it can refer to either peace between two entities (especially between man and God or between two countries), or to the well-being, welfare or safety of an individual or a group of individuals.

Words

So based on context and rules of grammar, Hebrew words can have multiple meanings, often beyond what the author meant to say.

Names

Likewise, did you know that Hebrew names have inherent meanings imbedded in them?

Names

Take for example the first name in the Bible.

Adam אָדָם

This is the Hebrew word for "man". It could be ultimately derived from Hebrew אָדָם (adam) meaning "to be red", referring to the ruddy color of human skin, or from Akkadian adamu meaning "to make".

Names

Genesis 5 New International Version (NIV) From Adam to Noah

¹This is the written account of Adam's family line. When God created mankind, he made them in the likeness of God. ² He created them male and female and blessed them. And he named them "Mankind" when they were created.

Names

³ When Adam had lived 130 years, he had a son in his own likeness, in his own image; and he named him Seth. ⁴ After Seth was born, Adam lived 800 years and had other sons and daughters. ⁵ Altogether, Adam lived a total of 930 years, and then he died.

Names

⁶ When Seth had lived 105 years, he became the father of Enosh. ⁷ After he became the father of Enosh, Seth lived 807 years and had other sons and daughters. ⁸ Altogether, Seth lived a total of 912 years, and then he died. ⁹ When Enosh had lived 90 years, he became the father of Kenan.

Names

¹⁰ After he became the father of Kenan, Enosh lived 815 years and had other sons and daughters. ¹¹ Altogether, Enosh lived a total of 905 years, and then he died. ¹² When Kenan had lived 70 years, he became the father of Mahalalel. ¹³ After he became the father of Mahalalel, Kenan lived 840 years and had other sons and daughters.

Names

¹⁴ Altogether, Kenan lived a total of 910 years, and then he died. ¹⁵ When Mahalalel had lived 65 years, he became the father of Jared. ¹⁶ After he became the father of Jared, Mahalalel lived 830 years and had other sons and daughters. ¹⁷ Altogether, Mahalalel lived a total of 895 years, and then he died.

Names

¹⁸ When Jared had lived 162 years, he became the father of Enoch. ¹⁹ After he became the father of Enoch, Jared lived 800 years and had other sons and daughters. ²⁰ Altogether, Jared lived a total of 962 years, and then he died. ²¹ When Enoch had lived 65 years, he became the father of Methuselah.

Names

²² After he became the father of Methuselah, Enoch walked faithfully with God 300 years and had other sons and daughters. ²³ Altogether, Enoch lived a total of 365 years. ²⁴ Enoch walked faithfully with God; then he was no more, because God took him away. ²⁵ When Methuselah had lived 187 years, he became the father of Lamech.

Names

²⁶ After he became the father of Lamech, Methuselah lived 782 years and had other sons and daughters. ²⁷ Altogether, Methuselah lived a total of 969 years, and then he died. ²⁸ When Lamech had lived 182 years, he had a son. ²⁹ He named him Noah and said, “He will comfort us in the labor and painful toil of our hands caused by the ground the LORD has cursed.”

Names

³⁰ After Noah was born, Lamech lived 595 years and had other sons and daughters.

³¹ Altogether, Lamech lived a total of 777 years, and then he died. ³² After Noah was 500 years old, he became the father of Shem, Ham and Japheth.

Names

In Hebrew, one can infer the meaning of a name by looking at the root of the name.

Names

Let's look at the names of the 9 descendants of Adam and see if we can draw any conclusions

Names

ADAM אָדָם

This is the Hebrew word for "man". It could be ultimately derived from Hebrew אָדָם ('adam) meaning "to be red", referring to the ruddy color of human skin, or from Akkadian adamu meaning "to make". According to Genesis, Adam was created from the earth by God (there is a word play on Hebrew אֲדָמָה ('adamah) "earth"). He lived 800 years.
