

I Call This Teaching
What If They're
An Angel?

I had mentioned that Jerry's teaching two weeks ago, on the subject of angels, reminded me of a sermon I did for my church back in 2002.

Please recognize that this teaching includes visual depictions of angels that Jerry advised us to ignore.

I'd seen a older man, on a bicycle, in several places in our area. Each time he had a sign that said “Will work for food”.

Since he was well known in our area, numerous members of the congregation knew exactly who I was talking about.

Even today, 17 years later, one can still see destitute people standing at Walmart exits with their signs panhandling for money.

I started asking myself, “who was this man with the sign”.

One tends to teach within their comfort zone. You shy away from topics you don't understand or from those that might show your own weaknesses.

An adulterer tends not to teach on adultery.

A liar tends not to teach on truthfulness.

Those that do are hypocrites.
